Report on Online Accounting Knowledge Test

The Online Accounting Knowledge Test organized by the Department of Accounting & Finance at Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce, Chembur, on 22nd June 2024, through Google Form. This platform enabled seamless participation and real-time score reporting for students, enhancing transparency and immediate feedback.

The initiative was not only technologically advanced but also ensured academic rigor by having faculty members closely monitor the test-taking process in the classroom. This oversight helped maintain the integrity of the assessment and upheld academic standards throughout the event.

The quiz attracted a diverse and enthusiastic group of participants, including students from both SYBAF and TYBAF. The active involvement of 50 students underscores the popularity and relevance of the test, showcasing a strong engagement within the academic community at Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce.

Overall, the event not only promoted learning but also fostered a collaborative environment where students could test their knowledge in accounting while receiving support and guidance from their professors. Such initiatives are crucial in nurturing academic growth and preparing students for future challenges in the field of accounting and finance.
