Dear Madam/Sir

Greetings from Akshara!

We would like to thank you for your collaboration with Akshara in bringing together our webinar, Unpacking Gender: Domestic Violence In Lockdown, with Panellists Rahul Bose and Dr. Trupti Jhaveri Panchal along with Chief Guest Dr. Uma Shankar from SIES College. With your collaboration, we have been able to reach your college students and raise awareness on a very important issue of the rise of domestic violence in the pandemic.

We began with understanding the impact of COVID-19 and the subsequent lockdown on women. Being the primary caregivers and domestic workers inside their homes, a lockdown like situation hits them the worst. Dr. Trupti discussed how violence perpetrated by men themselves trapped indoors and their means to earn severely impacted, was a way to retrieve their lost sense of "manhood". Rahul Bose also threw light on how patriarchy accords the highest power to men, giving them the right to be violent towards their partners and women in their families without any consequences. Our entire discussion can be accessed here.

However, we are concerned that the mobilization strategy needs to be readdressed in order to ensure increased turnout. Before the webinar, we could together mobilize over 900 registrations and yet we only had around 200 students turnout for the webinar, out of the total 483 participants present. A detailed report is shared below.

Improving our mobilization strategy would optimize the efforts put by Akshara and colleges and help us reach out to larger student groups. Despite all our efforts, very few registered students participated. We would really appreciate it if we could have a conversation on how we can improve and get more student participation in future programs.

Since Akshara and the collaborating college will be giving joint certificates to those who attended we will soon share a list of students from your college who were present for the Webinar.

Akshara Centre values the relationship that it has shared with NSS for more than 10 years, now. It is with your support that we have been able to engage hundreds of young minds towards gender equality through various activities in the past and we look forward to collaborating again in the near future!

No of Beneficiaries: 84 students

Resource Person: Official of Deonar Police Station – P.I. Rashmi Ramchandra

The Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension (DLLE) at Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce is committed to fostering a safe and respectful learning environment for all students. This session is designed to empower both Second Year (SY) and Third Year (TY) students to understand, identify, and prevent sexual harassment. We'll begin by clearly defining sexual harassment and its various forms. This includes verbal harassment (inappropriate comments, jokes, or slurs), physical harassment (unwanted touching, groping, or assault), and visual harassment (lewd gestures, displaying pornography). By understanding the different forms it can take, you'll be better equipped to recognize it in your own experiences and those around you. Sexual harassment can have a significant negative impact on individuals, affecting their mental health, academic performance, and overall sense of safety. We'll discuss the potential consequences of sexual harassment and explore the resources available to support students who have experienced it. This includes information on reporting mechanisms within SNGCC, ensuring you know where to turn for help if needed.
