Report on the one-day national-level online awareness program on the National Digital Library of India (NDLI) resources and NDLI Club held in association, IIT, Kharagpur on 23rd July 2024

Introduction:

The Library Committee along with IQAC of SNG College, Chembur, successfully organized a one-day awareness program on the National Digital Library of India (NDLI) and NDLI Club on 23rd July, 2024. With the aim of familiarizing the college community with the vast resources and opportunities offered by NDLI, the committee sought the expertise of NDLI, IIT Kharagpur. Despite the short notice, the NDLI team graciously accepted the invitation and contributed significantly to the program's success.

Program Overview:

The awareness program commenced with a formal welcome address and introduction of the resource person by Ms. Naveena Suresh, Assistant Professor and the In Charge of Library Committee. The Resource person for the same was Ms. Manali Sengupta, Senior Outreach Manager, NDLI, IIT, Kharagpur. Madam began the session by highlighting the importance of digital resources in contemporary education. Subsequently, the NDLI team (Mrs. Manali) from IIT Kharagpur delivered an insightful presentation on the following:

- Overview of NDLI: A comprehensive introduction to the NDLI platform, its mission, vision, and objectives.
- NDLI Resources: A detailed exploration of the diverse collection of e-books, journals, videos, and other digital content available on NDLI.
- NDLI Club: An in-depth discussion on the concept of NDLI Clubs, their benefits, and the process of establishing one at SNG College.

The presentation was followed by an interactive Q&A session where participants had the opportunity to clarify their doubts and seek guidance on utilizing NDLI effectively.

Participation and Feedback:

The program garnered significant interest among students, faculty, and staff. 122 participants actively engaged in the session, demonstrating their enthusiasm for exploring the potential of NDLI. The feedback collected during the program was overwhelmingly positive, with participants expressing appreciation for the informative and engaging presentation.

Outcomes and Next Steps:

The awareness program achieved its primary objective of introducing NDLI to the SNG College community. Based on the positive response, the Library Committee plans to take the following steps:

- Establish an NDLI Club: Form a dedicated NDLI Club at SNG College to promote the use of NDLI among students.
- Digital Literacy Workshops: Conduct regular workshops to enhance digital literacy skills and facilitate effective utilization of NDLI resources.
- Collaboration with NDLI: Maintain a strong relationship with NDLI, IIT Kharagpur, to explore opportunities for further collaboration and support.

Acknowledgements:

The Library Committee extends its sincere gratitude to the NDLI team from IIT Kharagpur for their invaluable contribution to the program. Mr. Priyadarshan Shede, member of the library committee delivered the vote of thanks for the session. The committee also acknowledges the support of the college authorities, IT staff and the active participation of students, faculty, and staff.

Conclusion:

The NDLI awareness program proved to be a valuable initiative that has significantly enhanced the college's digital resources landscape. By leveraging the potential of NDLI, SNG College aims to create a vibrant learning environment that fosters academic excellence and research.
