Target Group: Students

Number of participants: 64 library users.

Sharing of the event information: Through printed brochure and WhatsApp Message.

Purpose: To raise awareness about the valuable online collection of NLIST e- resources. This event was organized for the purpose of bringing awareness among the students on the various e-resources of NLIST portal. So, our NDLI Club & the library committee has organized the event to serve this purpose.

Program Overview: The event was started with a welcome note by the librarian to all the attending students. Explained for what purpose this session was organized. Briefly explained and shown the importance & features of each of e- resource with a live demonstration. The librarian also briefly also explained the features of the types of e-resources N-LIST contains like number of e-books and e-journals and also made them to understand the benefits of using these resources for their study needs. The librarian answered the queries raised by the attendees.

Outcomes of the exhibition: With the greater number of students attending the event, it is hoped that they come to know about various e-resources of the NLIST portal. Also knows how to use, the usefulness and relevance for students points of view. It can further motivate and generate interest among them to utilities these sources to the maximum extent.
