Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce

Workshop on IPR

Date: 6th March 2020

Organized by: IQAC in association with BSC.IT Department

Resource Person: Adv. Devansh Malhotra

The one-day university-level workshop on "IPR and its Role" aimed to enhance the understanding of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) among students and teachers. It sought to elucidate the significance of IPR in various sectors and its role in fostering innovation and creativity.

Adv. Devansh Malhotra, an esteemed legal professional specializing in Intellectual Property Law, was invited to impart knowledge and insights on the subject matter.

Attendance:

The workshop witnessed an enthusiastic participation with a total of 176 students and 22 teachers in attendance, reflecting a keen interest in understanding the intricacies of Intellectual Property Rights.

Workshop Highlights:

Adv. Devansh Malhotra commenced the workshop by providing a comprehensive overview of Intellectual Property Rights, elucidating the various types of intellectual properties such as patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets. He delved into the legal frameworks governing IPR and its implications in both national and international contexts.

The workshop also included interactive sessions where participants actively engaged in discussions, raising pertinent queries and sharing their perspectives on the subject matter. Adv. Malhotra elucidated real-life case studies and examples to elucidate the practical applications of IPR in different industries.

Furthermore, the workshop highlighted the role of IPR in fostering innovation, protecting the rights of creators, and promoting economic growth. Participants gained insights into the importance of safeguarding intellectual assets and the legal mechanisms available for enforcement against infringement.

Conclusion:

The one-day university workshop on "IPR and its Role" proved to be highly insightful and enriching for both students and teachers alike. It provided a platform for fostering a deeper understanding of Intellectual Property Rights and its significance in contemporary society. The interactive sessions facilitated fruitful discussions, contributing to a holistic comprehension of the subject matter.

Such initiatives by the IQAC (Internal Quality Assurance Cell) are commendable in promoting academic enrichment and fostering a culture of intellectual curiosity within the academic community.

Overall, the workshop concluded on a successful note, leaving participants with a heightened awareness of IPR and its pivotal role in shaping the landscape of innovation and creativity.

Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce

University Level Workshop on "Intellectual Property Rights"

Organised by IQAC in association with Department o Commerce and BSC (IT)

Date: 9th March, 2023

Venue: Seminar Hall

Organized by: IQAC in association with Department of Commerce and B.Sc. (IT)

Resource Person: Adv. Savita Malhotra

Total Participants: 113

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce, in collaboration with the Department of Commerce and the Department of B.Sc. (IT), organized a University Level Workshop on "Intellectual Property Rights" on 9th March 2023. The workshop aimed to create awareness and provide in-depth knowledge about the importance and relevance of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) in various fields.

The workshop commenced with a welcome address by the Principal of Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce, emphasizing the importance of understanding Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) in today's competitive and innovative environment. The session was led by Adv. Savita Malhotra, a renowned legal expert in the field of IPR. Adv. Malhotra began by explaining the concept of Intellectual Property Rights, highlighting various types such as patents, trademarks, copyrights, and industrial designs, and discussing their significance across sectors like technology, literature, arts, and businesses. She elaborated on the legal framework governing IPR in India and internationally, covering procedures for filing patents, registering trademarks, and obtaining copyrights, as well as the enforcement mechanisms available to protect intellectual property and the legal consequences of infringement. The session also addressed the challenges and opportunities presented by the digital age, including copyright issues in digital media, software patents, and the protection of digital content. To provide practical insights, various case studies were discussed, demonstrating the critical role of IPR in business success and innovation. The workshop concluded with an interactive Q&A session, where participants actively engaged with Adv. Malhotra, seeking clarifications and discussing concerns related to IPR. The workshop, attended by 113 participants including students, faculty members, and industry professionals, was a resounding success, providing valuable insights into the importance of protecting intellectual property and the legal processes involved. It concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Adv. Savita Malhotra for her informative session and to all participants for their active involvement, marking a significant step towards enhancing awareness and knowledge of IPR within the academic and professional community.

The workshop on Intellectual Property, spearheaded by Mr. Priyadarshan Shede, provided an illuminating overview of intellectual property rights, encompassing patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets. Mr. Shede emphasized the significance of safeguarding intellectual assets to stimulate innovation, setting the stage for its application in the banking and insurance sectors. Through compelling real-world examples and case studies, students were enlightened on how intellectual property rights serve as pivotal instruments in product differentiation, brand recognition, and risk management within financial services. The interactive nature of the workshop facilitated vibrant discussions, allowing participants to delve into the nuances, challenges, and opportunities associated with intellectual property rights. Under Mr. Shede's guidance, students actively shared their perspectives, fostering a dynamic exchange of ideas. Moreover, the session delved into the legal framework governing intellectual property rights in India, imparting knowledge on the processes of obtaining patents, trademarks, and copyrights, alongside stressing the importance of compliance with relevant laws and regulations. As the workshop drew to a close, a heartfelt vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Priyadarshan Shede for his enlightening session, with Dr. Karishma Kasare graciously expressing appreciation to the participants for their enthusiastic involvement throughout the session.
