1. REPORT ON SEED COLLECTION DRIVE AT SNGC COLLEGE

Date: July 15, 2023

Introduction:

On July 15, 2023, a Seed Collection Drive was organized at SNGC College, spearheaded by our NSS volunteers. The initiative aimed to promote environmental sustainability and biodiversity conservation by collecting seeds from each class within the college premises.

KeyDetails:

The Seed Collection Drive was coordinated by dedicated NSS volunteers who actively engaged with participants to gather seeds from every class. A total of 26 participants, including 16 boys and 10 girls, enthusiastically contributed to the seed collection drive, demonstrating their commitment to environmental stewardship. The collection drive took place within the premises of SNGC College, providing a convenient and accessible location for participants to participate in the initiative. The drive spanned over 2 hours, allowing ample time for volunteers to traverse through various classrooms and collect seeds from each class.

Highlights:

Active Participation: Participants demonstrated a high level of enthusiasm and eagerness to contribute to the seed collection drive, underscoring their dedication to environmental conservation efforts.

Conclusion:

The Seed Collection Drive at SNGC College, organized by our NSS volunteers, exemplified the collective commitment towards environmental sustainability and biodiversity conservation. Through active participation and collaboration, participants contributed to the preservation of local plant species and the promotion of greener campus environments. Organize follow-up activities, such as seed planting workshops or tree plantation drives, to further engage participants in environmental conservation efforts. Establish a seed bank or exchange program within the college to facilitate seed sharing and promote community involvement in conservation initiatives. Integrate environmental education and awareness-building activities into the college curriculum to foster a culture of environmental responsibility and stewardship among students

2. REPORT ON SEED BALL MAKING EVENT

Date: 21-07-2023

Participants: 26 NSS Volunteers (16 boys, 10 girls)

Introduction: On the 21st of July 2023, an enthusiastic group of 26 NSS volunteers, comprising 16 boys and 10 girls, came together to participate in a significant environmental initiative - seed ball making. The event aimed to create seed balls that would later be utilized for seed bombing in Adai Village, fostering biodiversity and ecological sustainability in the region.

Objective: The primary objective of the seed ball making event was to promote afforestation and ecological conservation through a hands-on approach. By creating seed balls, the volunteers aimed to contribute to the restoration of green cover in Adai Village, thereby enhancing the local ecosystem and mitigating environmental degradation.

Process: Under the guidance of experienced environmentalists and facilitators, the volunteers engaged in the process of seed ball making with great enthusiasm and dedication. The process involved mixing seeds of native plant species with clay, compost, and water to form small, compact balls. These seed balls serve as a protective covering for seeds, providing them with a conducive environment for germination and growth.

Collaboration and Coordination: The success of the event was facilitated by effective collaboration and coordination among the volunteers. Working in teams, they efficiently divided tasks, ensuring smooth operation throughout the seed ball making process. Additionally, the supportive environment fostered camaraderie among the volunteers, further enhancing their sense of purpose and commitment to the cause.

Conclusion: The seed ball making event conducted on the 21st of July 2023 stands as a testament to the collective efforts and commitment of the NSS volunteers towards environmental conservation and sustainable development. Through their active participation and dedication, they have not only contributed to the greening of Adai Village but have also set a precedent for future initiatives aimed at fostering a harmonious relationship between humanity and nature.

3. REPORT ON TREKKING, CLEANLINESS DRIVE, AND SEED BOMBING ACTIVITY

Date: 22-07-2023

Participants: 22 NSS Volunteers (12 boys, 10 girls)

Introduction: On the 22nd of July 2023, a group of 22 enthusiastic NSS volunteers, comprising 12 boys and 10 girls, embarked on a transformative journey encompassing trekking, a cleanliness drive, and seed bombing activity. The event aimed to promote environmental stewardship, community engagement, and sustainable development in the region.

Objective: The primary objective of the trekking and cleanliness drive was to raise awareness about the importance of environmental conservation and cleanliness while fostering a sense of responsibility towards maintaining the ecological balance. Additionally, the seed bombing activity aimed to contribute to afforestation efforts in Adai Village using seeds collected from students in college.

Trekking and Cleanliness Drive: The volunteers commenced their journey with a 5-kilometer trek from Panvel Station to Adai Village, traversing through scenic landscapes and natural terrain. Along the way, they conducted a cleanliness drive, collecting and disposing of litter to enhance the aesthetic appeal and ecological integrity of the region. The trek provided an opportunity for the volunteers to connect with nature, appreciate its beauty, and reflect on the importance of preserving it for future generations.

Seed Bombing Activity: Upon reaching Adai Village, the volunteers proceeded with the seed bombing activity, utilizing the seeds collected from students in college. Seed bombs, consisting of clay, compost, and seeds of native plant species, were strategically dispersed in areas identified for afforestation. This hands-on activity not only facilitated the restoration of green cover but also symbolized a collective commitment to nurturing the environment and promoting biodiversity.

Collaboration and Engagement: The success of the event was made possible by the collaborative efforts and active engagement of the volunteers. Through teamwork and coordination, they seamlessly integrated trekking, cleanliness drive, and seed bombing activity, maximizing their impact and effectiveness. The spirit of camaraderie and shared purpose fostered a sense of unity and empowerment among the volunteers, inspiring them to continue their efforts towards environmental conservation and community development.

4. WASTE MANAGEMENT

Date: 08-08-2023

Introduction:

The Waste Management event organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) on 08-08-2023 aimed to address the pressing issue of waste disposal and promote sustainable waste management practices within the community.

Activities:

Participants engaged in various activities, including waste segregation, recycling workshops, and cleanliness drives. These activities were designed to raise awareness about the importance of proper waste disposal and encourage behavioural change towards reducing, reusing, and recycling waste.

Impact:

With a total of 103 participants actively involved in the event, significant progress was made in promoting responsible waste management practices. Participants gained practical knowledge about waste segregation techniques and the importance of environmental stewardship.

Conclusion:

The Waste Management event served as a platform for fostering environmental consciousness and instilling a sense of responsibility towards maintaining cleanliness and hygiene in the community. Through collective efforts, the NSS successfully advocated for sustainable waste management practices and inspired positive change among participants.

Date: 11-08-2023

Introduction:

The Tree Plantation Drive organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) on 11-08-2023 aimed to contribute to the ongoing efforts of afforestation and environmental conservation.

Activities:

Participants actively participated in planting saplings of various tree species at designated locations. The event also included educational sessions on the importance of trees in mitigating climate change, maintaining ecological balance, and enhancing biodiversity.

Impact:

With a total of 29 participants joining hands for the tree plantation drive, a significant number of saplings were successfully planted, contributing to the green cover of the region. Participants gained first-hand experience in tree plantation and developed a deeper appreciation for the role of trees in sustaining life on Earth.

Conclusion:

The Tree Plantation Drive not only helped in increasing the green cover but also sensitized participants towards environmental conservation. By actively engaging in tree planting activities, the NSS reaffirmed its commitment to promoting sustainable development and creating a greener, healthier planet for future generations.

ON AIDS

Date: 10-09-2023

Introduction:

The Red Ribbon Club organized a marathon to raise awareness about AIDS, a critical public health issue. Six students from Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce actively participated in this event, demonstrating their commitment to promoting health education and community engagement.

Event Overview:

The marathon attracted participants from various walks of life, including students, professionals, and health advocates. The route was strategically planned to traverse through densely populated areas, maximizing visibility and outreach. Along the course, informational banners and volunteers disseminated key messages about AIDS prevention, treatment, and destigmatization.

Participation of Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce Students:

06 students from Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce enthusiastically joined the marathon, embodying the spirit of social responsibility and active citizenship. Their presence not only amplified the reach of the awareness campaign but also served as a testament to the college's commitment to holistic education and community service.

Impact:

The marathon served as a powerful platform to dispel myths and misconceptions surrounding AIDS while encouraging dialogue and proactive involvement in public health initiatives. By leveraging the collective effort of participants, the event contributed to destigmatizing AIDS and promoting empathy and support for affected individuals.

Conclusion:

The Red Ribbon Club's marathon exemplifies the potential of collective action in fostering awareness and advocacy for critical health issues like AIDS. ## 8. Blood Donation Drive: A Lifesaving Collaboration with Lokmanya Tilak Hospital

Date: 16-09-2023

Venue: College Stilt Area

Level: Area based Activity

Introduction:

Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce students, in a collaborative effort with Lokmanya Tilak Hospital, organized a successful Blood Donation Drive aimed at addressing the critical need for blood supply. The drive, held from 9 AM to 3 PM, witnessed an overwhelming response from volunteers, resulting in the collection of 91 units of blood.

Execution:

The event commenced with meticulous planning and coordination between student organizers and healthcare professionals from Lokmanya Tilak Hospital. Utilizing various outreach channels, including social media, posters, and word-of-mouth, the drive garnered widespread community support and participation. The donation process was streamlined to ensure efficiency and adherence to safety protocols, with trained medical staff overseeing the collection procedures.

Impact:

The Blood Donation Drive yielded a remarkable outcome, exemplifying the altruism and solidarity within the community. The 91 units of blood collected have the potential to save numerous lives and alleviate the strain on blood banks, particularly during emergencies and medical treatments. Beyond the tangible impact, the event also raised awareness about the importance of regular blood donation and encouraged a culture of philanthropy among students and residents alike.

Conclusion:

Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce's collaborative Blood Donation Drive with Lokmanya Tilak Hospital stands as a testament to the transformative power of collective action in addressing societal needs. Through proactive engagement and partnership with healthcare institutions, the event not only facilitated lifesaving donations but also fostered a culture of compassion and community service among participants.

Date: 01-10-2023

Introduction:

The Swachhta Hi Sewa & Plastic Waste Management Workshop organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) on 01-10-2023 aimed to promote cleanliness, hygiene, and effective management of plastic waste within the community.

Process:

Under the guidance of experienced environmentalists and facilitators, the volunteers engaged in the process of seed ball making with great enthusiasm and dedication. The process involved mixing seeds of native plant species with clay, compost, and water to form small, compact balls. These seed balls serve as a protective covering for seeds, providing them with a conducive environment for germination and growth.

Activities:

Apart from seed ball making, the workshop also focused on educating participants about the hazards of plastic pollution and the importance of waste segregation, recycling, and proper disposal. Interactive sessions, demonstrations, and practical exercises were conducted to enhance participants' understanding of sustainable waste management practices.

Impact:

With 52 volunteers actively participating in the workshop, significant progress was made in promoting environmental awareness and instilling a sense of responsibility towards waste management. Participants gained practical skills in seed ball making and learned effective strategies for reducing plastic waste in their daily lives.

Conclusion:

The Swachhta Hi Sewa & Plastic Waste Management Workshop served as a platform for promoting environmental stewardship and fostering a culture of cleanliness and sustainability. Through hands-on activities and educational initiatives, the NSS reaffirmed its commitment to creating a cleaner, greener, and healthier environment for all.

10.REPORT PLASTIC COLLECTION DRIVE

Date: October 10, 2023

Activity: NSS (National Service Scheme) department organized a Plastic Collection Drive involving 52 students.

Objective:

The primary objective of this initiative was to raise awareness about the detrimental effects of plastic pollution and to encourage responsible disposal practices among students. By collecting plastic waste, the aim was to mitigate environmental harm and promote a cleaner, more sustainable community.

Summary:

On October 10, 2023, the NSS department orchestrated a concerted effort to address the issue of plastic pollution. Engaging 52 enthusiastic students, the drive aimed to mobilize collective action towards the collection and proper disposal of plastic waste. Participants were encouraged to bring plastic materials from their homes, thereby fostering a sense of personal responsibility for waste management.

Outcomes:

Quantifiable Impact: The collective efforts of 52 students resulted in the collection of 10 kg of plastic waste, symbolizing a tangible step towards addressing plastic pollution.

Behavioural Change: Through active participation, students not only contributed to waste reduction but also internalized the importance of responsible waste management practices.

Community Engagement: The Plastic Collection Drive fostered a sense of community engagement and environmental stewardship, reinforcing the role of individuals in effecting positive change.

Conclusion:

The Plastic Collection Drive organized by the NSS department exemplifies the power of collective action in tackling environmental challenges. By mobilizing students to actively participate in waste collection and disposal, the initiative not only promotes cleaner surroundings but also cultivates a culture of environmental responsibility and sustainability.

11.Children's Day Celebration: Fostering Joy and Engagement in Local Communities

Date: 14-11-2023

Venue: Chembur

Level: Area based Activity

No. of participants: 12

Introduction:

Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce students, in collaboration with Save the Shivaji Nagar foundation, orchestrated a heart-warming Children's Day Celebration aimed at spreading joy and fostering community engagement. Through a myriad of games and fun activities, the event sought to create memorable experiences for the children of the local area.

Event Highlights:

The celebration buzzed with excitement as children from the surrounding community gathered to partake in the festivities. Student volunteers organized a diverse range of games and activities tailored to different age groups, ensuring everyone could participate and enjoy themselves. From classic games like sack race and musical chairs to creative crafts and storytelling sessions, every moment was filled with laughter and camaraderie.

Collaborative Spirit:

The collaboration between Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce students and the local NGO exemplified the power of collective efforts in community-building. Through joint planning and execution, the event seamlessly blended academic enthusiasm with grassroots outreach, creating a synergistic impact on the community.

Impact:

The Children's Day Celebration left an indelible mark on both the children and organizers alike. Beyond just a day of fun, the event fostered a sense of belonging and solidarity within the local community. By providing an avenue for joy and interaction, it underscored the importance of nurturing holistic development among children and cultivating a spirit of togetherness.

Conclusion:

Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce's collaborative Children's Day Celebration serves as a testament to the transformative power of collective action in community engagement. Through meaningful interactions and shared experiences, the event not only brought smiles to children's faces but also strengthened the bonds of camaraderie and compassion within the local area.

Introduction:

The Juhu Beach Cleanliness Drive organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) on 30/11/2023 aimed to promote environmental stewardship and raise awareness about the importance of preserving marine ecosystems.

Activities:

Participants actively engaged in cleaning up the Juhu Beach, one of Mumbai's iconic coastal areas, by collecting litter, debris, and plastic waste. They worked tirelessly to restore the beach to its natural beauty and prevent further pollution of the marine environment.

Impact:

With 30 volunteers participating in the cleanliness drive, a significant amount of waste was removed from the beach, contributing to the improvement of local environmental conditions. The event also served as a catalyst for raising awareness about the detrimental effects of marine pollution and the importance of responsible waste management practices.

Conclusion:

The Juhu Beach Cleanliness Drive exemplified the NSS's commitment to environmental conservation and community service. By actively participating in the clean up efforts, volunteers demonstrated their dedication to preserving natural habitats and promoting sustainable living practices. The success of this event underscores the importance of collective action in addressing environmental challenges and safeguarding the planet for future generations.

Date: 13-12-2023
Venue: College Campus
Level: Area Based Activity
No. of participants : 25 students
Introduction:

On December 13, 2023, students of Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce organized a Cancer Patient Collection Drive to support individuals battling cancer. This philanthropic endeavour aimed to collect essential medicines for cancer patients, resulting in a generous donation of medicines worth 23,693 rupees to the Cancer Aid and Research Foundation.

Execution:

The drive commenced with meticulous planning and outreach efforts by student organizers. Leveraging social media platforms, community networks, and campus-wide awareness campaigns, students rallied support for the cause. Donors generously contributed various cancer-fighting medications, including chemotherapy drugs, pain relievers, and supportive care medicines. The collected medications were carefully organized and delivered to the Cancer Aid and Research Foundation, ensuring timely assistance to those in need.

Impact:

The Cancer Patient Collection Drive exemplified the spirit of empathy and solidarity within the Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce community. The collective effort resulted in a substantial donation that will alleviate the financial burden of cancer treatment for numerous patients. Additionally, the drive raised awareness about the challenges faced by cancer patients and the importance of collective support in combating the disease.

Conclusion:

Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce's Cancer Patient Collection Drive exemplifies the transformative impact of student-led initiatives in addressing societal challenges. ### 14.REPORT ON CLOTHES & BOOKS DISTRIBUTION ACTIVITY

Date: 04-01-2024

Introduction: On the 4th of January 2024, the NSS Unit of SNGC organized a heart-warming clothes and books distribution activity for the underprivileged children of rag pickers in Govandi. The event took place at Stree Mukti Sangathan, an NGO based in Govandi, with whom our NSS unit has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for various collaborative initiatives, including dry waste and e-waste collection, as well as managing a compost pit in the college campus.

Objective: The primary objective of the clothes and books distribution activity was to extend support to the underprivileged children of rag pickers in Govandi, enabling them to access essential items such as clothing and educational materials. Additionally, the event aimed to strengthen the partnership between the NSS unit and Stree Mukti Sangathan, furthering their shared commitment to community service and social welfare.

Distribution Activity: The distribution activity was conducted with utmost care and compassion by the NSS volunteers. A total of 50 volunteers, comprising 25 boys and 25 girls, actively participated in the event, demonstrating their dedication to serving the community. Clothes and books were carefully selected and sorted prior to the event, ensuring that they met the specific needs and preferences of the recipients.

Conclusion: The clothes and books distribution activity organized by the NSS unit of SNGC exemplifies the spirit of compassion, empathy, and social responsibility embedded within the organization. Through their collective efforts and partnership with Stree Mukti Sangathan, the NSS volunteers have made a meaningful difference in the lives of underprivileged children, offering them hope, dignity, and opportunities for a better future. As the NSS unit continues to engage in collaborative initiatives with Stree Mukti Sangathan and other community partners, they reaffirm their commitment to serving society and creating positive change. By working together towards common goals, they inspire others to join in their efforts and build a more inclusive and equitable world for all.

15.REPORT ON RALLY ON ROAD SAFETY

Date: 12-01-2024

Introduction: On the 12th of January 2024, an impactful Rally on Road Safety was conducted by the college students of SNGC. The rally aimed to raise awareness among the locals of Chembur on the importance of road safety and promote responsible behaviour among road users.

Objective: The primary objective of the rally was to educate the community about road safety practices and encourage adherence to traffic rules and regulations. By organizing a visible and engaging event, the students sought to instil a sense of responsibility and vigilance among both pedestrians and drivers, ultimately contributing to the reduction of road accidents and fatalities.

Rally Details: The rally commenced from SNGC College and traversed through the streets of Chembur, culminating at the outskirts of Lokhande Marg. A total of 80 students, including 40 boys and 40 girls, participated in the rally, holding placards, banners, and signs bearing messages related to road safety. The enthusiastic participation of the students attracted the attention of bystanders and passers-by, amplifying the impact of the awareness campaign.

Awareness Activities: Throughout the rally, students engaged in various awareness activities aimed at disseminating key messages on road safety. They distributed informative pamphlets and leaflets to members of the community, highlighting the importance of wearing seatbelts, helmets, and reflective gear, as well as obeying speed limits and traffic signals. Additionally, students interacted with locals, initiating conversations on safe pedestrian practices and the dangers of distracted driving.

Conclusion: The Rally on Road Safety organized by the college students of SNGC exemplifies the power of grassroots initiatives in effecting positive change in society. By actively engaging with the community and advocating for safer road practices, the students have demonstrated their commitment to promoting a culture of responsibility and vigilance on the roads.

As the messages conveyed during the rally resonate with the community, they have the potential to inspire lasting behavioural change and contribute to the creation of safer, more inclusive roadways for everyone.

DRIVE

Date: 18-01-2024

Venue: College Stilt Area

Introduction: The NSS unit of SNGC organized a commendable initiative on 18th January 2024, hosting a Blood Donation and Thalassemia Check-up Drive at the college stilt area. This noble endeavour aimed to contribute to the community's health and well-being by promoting blood donation and raising awareness about thalassemia.

Blood Donation Drive: The Blood Donation Drive witnessed an overwhelming response from students, faculty, and staff members of SNGC, with a total of 60 units of blood collected throughout the day. The selfless act of blood donation exemplified the spirit of altruism and compassion among the college community, as individuals came forward to contribute to the noble cause of saving lives.

Thalassemia Check-up: In conjunction with the Blood Donation Drive, a Thalassemia Check-up camp was organized, providing an opportunity for students to undergo screening for thalassemia and other blood disorders. A total of 166 students availed themselves of this service, demonstrating their commitment to their health and well-being.

Participants: The event saw active participation from both male and female students, with 14 boys and 8 girls volunteering to donate blood. Their enthusiastic involvement reflected a sense of social responsibility and solidarity with those in need, inspiring others to join in the humanitarian effort.

Impact and Contribution: The Blood Donation and Thalassemia Check-up Drive made a significant contribution to the community's health infrastructure, providing a vital supply of blood for patients in need while also raising awareness about thalassemia and the importance of regular screenings. The collective efforts of the participants underscored the college's commitment to fostering a culture of service and compassion.

Conclusion: The success of the Blood Donation and Thalassemia Check-up Drive exemplifies the power of collective action in addressing pressing healthcare challenges and promoting public health initiatives. The NSS unit of SNGC is commended for its exemplary leadership and organization in spearheading this impactful event, which has undoubtedly made a positive difference in the lives of many.

17.REPORT ON AWARENESS SESSION ON BLOOD CANCER & ITS TREATMENT

Date: 30th January 2024

Venue: SNGC

Introduction: On 30th January 2024, the NSS unit in collaboration with BKMS BMST, a Bangalore-based NGO, organized an impactful awareness session on Blood Cancer and its treatment for the students of SNGC. The session aimed to educate students about the nuances of Blood Cancer, dispel myths, and promote early detection and treatment options.

Awareness Session: The awareness session commenced with an informative presentation by experts from BKMS BMST, who shared valuable insights into the various types of Blood Cancer, its causes, symptoms, and treatment modalities. Through interactive discussions and real-life case studies, students gained a deeper understanding of the disease and its impact on individuals and families.

Swab Collection Drive: In addition to the awareness session, a Swab Collection Drive was conducted as part of the event, with the aim of expanding the database of potential stem cell donors. A total of 60 students volunteered to provide swab samples for inclusion in the registry, demonstrating their willingness to contribute to life-saving initiatives.

Participant Engagement: The session saw active participation from both male and female students, with 46 boys and 34 girls engaging in the discussions, asking insightful questions, and expressing their commitment to spreading awareness about Blood Cancer within their communities. The enthusiastic response underscored the importance of such initiatives in promoting health literacy and fostering a culture of compassion and solidarity.

18.REPORT MARATHON RUN FOR LEPROSY AWARENESS

Date: 03-02-2024

Participants: 18 Volunteers of NSS Department

Event Overview: On the 3rd of February 2024, a spirited group of 18 volunteers from the NSS (National Service Scheme) Department took part in a Marathon Run aimed at raising awareness about leprosy. The event, organized with the goal of spreading awareness among the residents of Chembur, Mumbai, about the myths, realities, and treatment options surrounding leprosy, drew significant attention and participation.

Participant Breakdown:

- Boys: 10
- Girls: 8

Objective: The primary objective of the marathon was to dispel the stigma associated with leprosy and to educate the community about the disease's causes, symptoms, and treatments. By actively engaging in the marathon, the volunteers aimed to demonstrate solidarity with leprosy-affected individuals and encourage empathy and support from the community.

Achievements: Among the participants, one standout individual, Mr. Chandan Shinde, showcased exceptional determination and skill, securing a place in the top 15 spots of the marathon. His commendable performance not only added to the success of the event but also served as an inspiration for others to participate actively and contribute towards the cause.

Conclusion: The Marathon Run for Leprosy Awareness organized by the NSS Department on the 3rd of February 2024 proved to be a significant step towards combating the stigma surrounding leprosy. By mobilizing enthusiastic volunteers and engaging the community in a meaningful dialogue, the event not only raised awareness but also fostered empathy and understanding towards individuals affected by leprosy. Such initiatives play a crucial role in promoting inclusivity, acceptance, and support for marginalized communities, ultimately contributing to the creation of a more compassionate and informed society.

22.Choo Machar Activity: Combating Mosquito-Borne Diseases in Nearby Communities

Date: September 2023 to February 2024

Venue: Chembur, Govandi

Level: Area Based Activity

No. of participants : 25 students

Introduction:

Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce students initiated a proactive community engagement project, dubbed "Choo Machar Activity," aimed at raising awareness about mosquito-borne diseases and preventative measures. The activity encompassed conducting surveys in nearby areas and educating locals on disease transmission and prevention strategies.

Survey Conduct:

Students meticulously conducted surveys in the vicinity, gathering crucial data on the prevalence of mosquito-borne diseases, breeding sites, and community awareness levels. This data served as a foundation for tailored awareness campaigns.

Awareness Campaign:

Armed with survey insights, students orchestrated a multifaceted awareness campaign within the community. Through interactive workshops, informative pamphlets, and engaging presentations, they elucidated the risks associated with diseases like dengue, malaria, and chikungunya. Additionally, students disseminated practical prevention techniques, including proper waste disposal, eliminating stagnant water, and utilizing mosquito repellents.

Impact:

The Choo Machar Activity yielded tangible results, fostering heightened community awareness and proactive involvement in disease prevention. Locals exhibited a newfound understanding of disease transmission dynamics and embraced preventative measures, thereby reducing mosquito breeding grounds and mitigating disease risks.

Conclusion:

Sree Narayana Guru College of Commerce's Choo Machar Activity exemplifies the power of grassroots initiatives in combating mosquito-borne diseases. Through proactive engagement and targeted education, students catalysed positive behavioural changes within the community, paving the way for a healthier and more resilient society.
